

YCF membership is evolving ....

Does your organisation support the chemical industry and its users?

If so, our new Business Support Partner membership is ideal for you.

Organisations that support the chemical industry are invited to benefit from being a part of our new BSP membership programme. This tailored programme allows access to YCF member companies large and small with the prospect of developing business opportunities.

“YCF is an important client and it would be unconscionable not to be a member”.

Benefits include:

Interest Groups

YCF Interest Groups will be sector specific while covering a wide range of subjects relevant to your organisation, such as regulation and legislation issues. A full schedule of our Interest Groups is available to view on our website www.ycf.org.uk.

Your organisation can attend 4 Interest Groups free of charge (one person) and further Interest Group attendance will be charged at the discounted YCF member's rate. Further, as a Business Support Partner, your organisation is entitled to present at one relevant Interest Group per membership year.

YCF Annual Interest Group Meeting

This annual event will bring together organisations from all Interest Groups to hear about the latest developments from each Interest Group, participate in themed workshops and to network with fellow members. This is a valuable opportunity to learn what each Interest Group has achieved over the past year and how your organisation can participate and contribute at future meetings. This event is available to Business Support Partners at the discount rate.

YCF Annual Social Event

This event aims to bring together various organisations and industry notables to network, share experiences and gain new business contacts. Business Support Partners will have the opportunity to attend at the YCF discounted member's rate.

YCF Exhibition

Your organisation will be notified and given the first choice of prime exhibition space at YCF events.

Webinar hosting

Each Business Support Partner will be able to host a relevant “lunch time” webinar of your choice. This will enable you to showcase your services to the YCF community and beyond. Your organisation can host one webinar free of charge, per membership year.

Sponsorship Packages

Your organisation will be notified and given first opportunity to take advantage of profiling through sponsorship at appropriate events in the YCF calendar.

Business Support Services

Could your organisation offer assistance to the wider YCF community? Approved Business Support Partners could offer services such as HR support, regulatory help lines and insurance products to the wider YCF membership. Please note this benefit is subject to approval and availability.

Member2Member Promotion

Business Support Partners are able to offer services to fellow YCF members and associated networks members at a discounted rate.

Website Promotion

YCF will promote your services on our website through a single page member profile, in addition to providing space to publish your company news items, case studies, events and press releases to website visitors.

YCF Directory

The YCF Directory offers Business Support Partners a free member’s listing and advertisement opportunities at a discounted member’s rate.

Re:Action Magazine

This twice yearly member publication is focussed on informing the YCF community of YCF and member news, YCF Interest Groups and regulatory updates. Business Support Partners are entitled to provide a one page article free of charge for inclusion in the magazine.

E-Newsletter

This update is e-mailed to all members on a monthly basis, which will include details of Interest Groups and events relevant to your organisation.

Mailing List

Business Support Partners are included on our regular emailing list to ensure your organisation receives YCF information first hand; featuring details on YCF events, news and relevant associate network information.

The above membership benefits are available for only £500 per annum. If you would like to discuss Business Support Partner membership in more detail or to join, please contact the YCF membership service team:
